GREAT MASONIC AND PATRIOTIC MEETING

Program of the Bicentennial Celebration of Masonry at Crab Orchard Springs Saturday, June 23rd

Following is the program of the Bicentennial Celebration of the foundation of Masonry, which will be held at Crab Orchard Springs, next Saturday, at which is expected fully 5,000 or 6,000 people. It will be a gala day in the history both of the oldest of fraternal orders and the town in which it will be held. Everybody is invited and the only request that is made of those who come is that they leave their pocketbooks at home.

Upon arrival of special trains from Louisville and from Middlesboro the craft will assemble at Masonic Lodge room to register and receive their distinguishing badges. The procession will form in front of the Lodge room, headed by the Military Band—the line of formation westward down Stanford street, the line when completed will cross Stanford street, head east and march to the main front door entrance at the Springs Hotel. Line of march headed by the official band and Lexington Lodge No. 1, thence the regular Masonic line interspersed with brass bands. The Grand Lodge officers and the officials of the Masonic Widows and Orphans Home will bring up the rear, led by the children from the Home and the little boys' brass band.

The formal ceremonies of the day will be opened with prayer by Rev. Stephen B. Lander, Bloomfield, Ky., Grand Chaplain of the Grand Lodge. The opening welcome by J. N. Saunders, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky.

A special train leaving Louisville at 10 A. M., will be run on Saturday for the convenience of those attending the Masonic Celebration.

It reaches here at 9:46 A. M. A more convenient schedule could not have been arranged for local people, who will use this train. The special train from Middlesboro reaches Crab Orchard at 9:50 A. M., and will start with 250 Masons aboard.

Sid Duke has fenced in an acre of the Crab Orchard Springs woodland with a table on which will be placed dinners on Saturday.

The big dining room at Crab Orchard

Spings will be used for the grand banquet on Saturday night, but a few who love children has seen it at that the regular ball room is set apart for them.

The Masonic symbol is the square and compass surrounding the letter

G. This symbol made six feet square and studded with fifty electric lights will be suspended over the speakers and at Crab Orchard.

The girls and boys of the Stanford

Lee Club will lead the great concourse of people at Crab Orchard, staying in singing patriotic songs.

The club will be accompanied by an orchestra of thirty-five pieces.

The little boys from the Masonic home have a band of 25 members, one of the little fellows are not as big as the horns they blow. They will be at Crab Orchard Saturday and will attract equally as much attention as Smittie's Famous Military band from Cincinnati, which will be the official band of the day.

The Masonic Celebration at Crab

Orchard on Saturday is not only to be a grand Masonic demonstration at a magnificent patriotic demonstration. The big flags will float from their staffs and one hundred small flags will be placed in the hands of people that Old Glory may be kept in evidence. A full one half mile of national streamers has been ordered with which to decorate the hills and porches.

Arrangements have been made to hold 6,000 people at Crab Orchard

Saturday, to park 500 automobiles to make it one of the most delightful social gatherings Central

Kentucky has had in a long time.

The suggestion of the committee charge is: Bring with you your fe or sweetheart. Come with glad art and pleasant smile, but leave your pocket book at home.

TO VOTERS OF CRAB ORCHARD MAGISTERIAL DISTRICT

Having been urged by my friends to make the race for magistracy and in making my announcement, I will say to you in regard to the road situation of our county, that I am positively against State aid. I am in favor of abolishing the office of Road Engineer and not buying so much high priced machinery. Secondly, I believe that an equal distribution should be made of the road fund throughout the county, and the road work be put in the hands of the taxpayers, that are farmers along each road respectively. I also favor that we pay the men who work on the county roads better wages for themselves and teams, also to have the overseers see that they earn their wages. This has been a life long dream and this is my first time to ask for an office and in the event I get the nomination and am elected, I will endeavor to serve the people at any and all times to the best of my ability. Yours truly, T. L. Tucker.

FORETHOUGHT

People are learning that a little forethought often saves them a big expense. Here is an instance: E. W. Archer, Caldwell, Ohio, writes: "I do not believe that our family has been without Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy since we commenced keeping house years ago. When we go on an extended visit we take it with us." Obtainable everywhere.

GOOD-BYE FOR MISS NEWLAND

Miss Gladys Sweeney and her boarders, Misses Ila Newland, Mary and Leona Wallin, beautifully entertained a few of their friends at their home on Whitley avenue Saturday evening, as a good-bye to one of the boarders, Miss Ila Newland, who has resigned her position as chief operator at the telephone office here, and who is going to spend the summer at home and among friends. Decorations were roses, carnations and ferns. After games, music and singing, fruit was served. All spent a very pleasant evening. Those present were: Mr. Allen Smith, of Brodhead, Dee Dishon, Atwood and Lynn Dillion, Paul Noland, Ernest and William Wallin, Shelby Newland, Charley Boone, of Crab Orchard, Paul Garman, of this city. Miss Elizabeth Newland, of Crab Orchard, Misses Ethel and Maria Powell, Miss Annie Milburn, Mary Hill Garman, Frances Garman, Alpha Fowle, Nell Newland, Mary and Leona Wallin, Gladys Sweeney and Ila Newland.

AND STILL THEY COME

"You are all right as far as you go but you don't go far enough. While Lincoln county is the best place in the United States, still it is not quite the whole of our Union. If you would not forget the boys that have gone from dear old Lincoln to make their way in the world you would remember that I have an 18 months old and owns a $100 Liberty Bond in his own name too. His name is Logan W. Hughes and has the Alcorn child 'backed off the boards.' This is not saying that young Edward Alcorn is not a fine specimen at that," writes the I. J.'s friend, L. Wearne Hughes, from Memphis, as he sends in the clipping from Friday's issue about the youthful grandson of Dr. Edward Alcorn, of Hustonville.

NEW WELDING MACHINE

The Bailey Garage on Depot street has just installed a welding machine which is proving a good thing for the people of this section. Mr. Herbert Bailey operates it and this office can testify that it does the work well. A few days since Mr. Bailey did a job of welding for a man who says it would have taken weeks to get the replacement for a machine which he needed immediately. Owners of binders, mowers and the like will find that they can get broken parts of casting welded at the Bailey Garage and save themselves both time and money.

NOTICE—HOG OWNERS

The Kentucky State Board of Health has decreed that no hogs shall be kept in any town, village or city from the first of May to the first of November of each year. Nine indictments are now registered in the court-house for violations of Health Laws; more will follow next Circuit Court. The Lincoln County Board of Health Records have to go before each grand jury. Citizens will report any violations of law to the Board of Health, Lincoln County Board of Health, per Secretary.

FOUND BAG BUT NO MEAL

A few nights ago D. W. Lynn's barn was entered and a sack of meal stolen. He sent for Lalr's bloodhounds from Hustonville and they were placed on the trail. The dogs went to the home of a colored man near by, where a sack resembling that stolen from Mr. Lynn was found but it contained meal that he was confident was not ground by the mill on his place.

SIXTY JOIN RED CROSS

Chairman William Severance, Vice Chairman T. W. Pennington and Secretary, Miss Esther Burch, of the Lincoln County Chapter of the Red Cross Society, went to Hustonville Sunday night and secured 60 members. The people of that section of the county are very much interested in the work of the Red Cross and many others will become members.

KENTUCKY'S BIGGEST FARMER

James I. Hamilton, of Lancaster, was a caller at this office this morning for the first time for years. In answer to the question, "what have you been doing that you have not been to see us for so long?" he answered: "I am a pretty busy man and it keeps me going to look after my business." Pinned down closely, Mr. Hamilton admitted that he had 800 acres of land under cultivation. He has 400 acres in corn, 200 in hemp, 100 in hemp seed, 65 in tobacco, 25 in Irish potatoes, is preparing to put 30 acres in navy beans and sow 20 bushels of buckwheat. Besides looking after this enormous boundary of crops, Mr. Hamilton has time to deal extensively in cattle, sheep and hogs, and now and then buys and sells a car-load or so of horses. For amusement he takes a hand in politics occasionally and when he does there is always something doing. In days gone by Mr. Hamilton ran into Stanford for the K. C. as postal clerk, but he has long since set aside such work for his farming interests and he now bears the distinction of being the biggest farmer in Central Kentucky, if not in the State. He has many friends in Stanford, who are always glad to see him.

MARRIAGES

It was a case of May and December "tying up" when one of our cleverest of Farmers was married this week to a pretty girl just 45 years his junior.

The engagement of Miss Louise Thomas, of Frankfort, to Mr. Wesley Embury, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Embury, of this city, is announced. The wedding will take place at The Seabach, Louisville, June 25th. Miss Thomas, who has visited friends here is a charming young woman, exceedingly pretty and is accomplished to a high degree. She belongs to one of Kentucky's oldest and best families and is very popular in Frankfort society. Mr. Embury, who was born and reared here, is an excellent business man and a fine fellow in every way. For a number of years he has held a position in one of the State offices at Frankfort and he has more than made good. The Interior Journal extends its congratulations in advance of the happy event and hopes that Mr. and Mrs. Embury will always be as happy it and their other friends wish them to be.

FIRST AID CLASS FORMED

An American Red Cross First Aid Class was organized last night with Dr. Carpenter as instructor. There will be ten lectures and demonstrations having two lessons a week. The first lesson will be given tonight. Miss Lucile Cooper was made president and Mrs. Lelia Cook, secretary. The Daughters of the American Revolution presented the charts and instruction outfit to the class, and for the use of other first aid classes if organized. Much interest was manifested and a large class will begin the work. Its object is to save life, to relieve suffering and to promote efficiency.

MORGAN V. SMITH DEAD

Morgan V. Smith, well-known in this county where he lived many years and was a prominent stock dealer, died at the home of his son, Garland Smith, at VanAlstyne, Texas, a few days ago. He married a half sister of the late Mrs. John Baughman, mother of Messrs. H. J. K. and M. S. Baughman, of this county, and had other relatives in Lincoln. He was a fine old gentleman and many of the older people hereabout will learn of his death with sincere regret. His wife died years ago, but several children survive. Mr. M. Smith Baughman was named for Mr. Smith.

20,000 SHORT OF ESTIMATE

The registration of men subject to military service in Kentucky probably will fall about 20,000 below the census estimate, accounted for by men already enlisted and the emigration of negroes north during the last year. With seven counties unreported to Gov. Stansby, the totals for the 113 counties were sent to the War Department as follows: White, 158,423; colored, 21,872; total, 178,295.

TO THE PUBLIC

"I have been using Chamberlain's Tablets for indigestion for the past six months, and it affords me pleasure to say I have never used a remedy that did me so much good."—Mrs. C. E. Riley, Illion, N. Y. Chamberlain's Tablets are obtainable everywhere.

NO ASSISTANCE DESIRED

When the allied whisky interests in the days gone by sent men and money to this county for the purpose of influencing voters, the Interior Journal, which was then under partly the same management as it is at present, protested, giving as its reason that Lincoln county people could take care of themselves in elections and otherwise. It entered a similar protest today. Last Thursday several gentlemen from a distance met in Stanford, made a slate and mapped out a program for the democracy of Lincoln county to support and carry out. Two of the gentlemen had probably never been in the county before and were in no position to know the wants or the needs of our people. The third has been only a beneficiary of Lincoln county, holding office today partly by the grace of this people. The fourth is an ex-Stanford man, whose kindly interest in the people of Lincoln is shown in his proffer to play the role of Moses and lead them out of darkness. The Interior Journal has no axes to grind, for any office, its management has never held office and never expects to, but it wants and demands fair play and home government. In short, it wants the good people of this magnificent county to say by their votes who they want to hold the various offices without the help or hindrance from any outsider. The hospitality of our people is proverbial and the glad hand is given to all who come in their midst, but dictation will not be tolerated by them. This is a free country and will continue to be. The greatest war in the history of the world is being waged for democracy against autocracy. The why let a monarch be built up right here in our home? A hint to the wise should be sufficient.

A REGRETTABLE CONDITION

Friends of the clever gentlemen will regret to know that a disagreement has sprung up between Messrs. W. B. and Bruce Haldeman, which has reached the courts. The trouble seems to have originated when Gen. Haldeman printed a first page editorial in the Times, calling on Gov. Stanley to include the question of calling a vote on State wide prohibition in his proclamation for an extra session to consider the taxation laws. The younger Haldeman opposing it. The Courier-Journal and Times are principally owned by the three heirs of the late W. N. Haldeman—W. B. Bruce and Miss Belle Haldeman. The latter being represented by Gen. Bennett H. Young, who with W. B. had arranged to hold a meeting to have general editorial and business managers appointed, which Bruce says would leave him powerless and he therefore sought an injunction to prevent the action. Since the death of their father, Bruce Haldeman has by agreement managed the business of both papers and W. B. has had charge of the editorial management of the Times. This arrangement the latter desires continued and it is up to the court to decide if it shall. For their own sakes and the welfare of the two splendid papers it is hoped that a satisfactory agreement will be found and that the usefulness and high character of the two papers will not be impaired by internal friction.

"The secret of the sale of Liberty Bonds is the advertising they were given," remarked Mr. A. C. Sine, of this city, to us Saturday. "and it shows very plainly that advertising pays," he added. Mr. Sine is right. Nothing offered in the history of the country was ever better advertised than the Liberty Loan Bonds, and the fact that the amount was oversubscribed by half shows how rapidly they were disposed of. "Advertising Pays" is a slogan in which there is far more truth than poetry.

A grand old soldier of the cross and of the Southern Confederacy went to his reward when Rev. J. R. Deering, for 50 years preacher and for a great part of the time a presiding elder, was suddenly called while attending the Confederate reunion at Washington, from an apoplectic stroke. In his book on Gen. Lee and the Confederacy, Dr. Deering made this significant remark: "There are things in my life that I regret and beg pardon for, but joining the army of the South and fighting for the cause I believed to be just is not one of them. I have no apology to make to God or man for it." Four preachers, two of them presiding elders, told of the virtues of the grand old man, whose body lies in the Lexington Cemetery, wrapped both in the Stars and Stripes and the Stars and the Bars.

An echo of the Goebel tragedy that shocked the State 18 years ago, comes in the announcement of the marriage of Henry Youtsey's divorced wife to James Yates, of Texas, at Lexington Saturday. After Youtsey saved his neck by throwing fits at his trial and got off with a life sentence for his part in the assassination, his wife, who was a Miss French, of Winchester, got a divorce and had her maiden name restored. She has lived in comparative retirement since, while the miserable dupe of a horrible conspiracy continues to suffer his punishment. The unspeakable Wilson pardoned all the main conspirators and left Youtsey to his fate, which is none the less deserved because he is the only one to suffer for the crime, in which he confesses participation.

The poet has said that there is nothing so rare as a day in June, but he was expatiating on the mellow sunlight and balmy breezes that are supposed to distinguish the month of roses, not about its frigidity. He had doubtless never heard of 40 degrees on the 16th of June. It was also a new record to most of us, and we are hoping that it will never again be broken. The oldest inhabitant, who generally can tell of something worse, has to scratch his head and think deep for a counterpart of this year without a spring or summer either, so far.

The Lexington Leader is urging a fusion ticket for Fayette county and Lexington. It would have the republicans, independents and progressives get together and defeat the democrats. Among those mentioned for a place on the fusion ticket are Thomas M. Owsley and Hill Spalding, former Lincoln county boys. The former is mentioned for county judge and the latter for city representative.

There will be many to sympathize with the Oklahoma Indian who has recently invested $640,000 in Liberty Bonds, whose income is so large that he can not keep up with his money, and has never drawn more than $125 a month of it. He should engage some of the gilded youth of Stanford to show him how to divorce himself from his filthy lucre.

It was a mistake to say that Lexington had fallen behind in her allotment of Liberty Bond subscriptions. She lagged at first but took a spurt on the home stretch and largely oversubscribed the amount. The capital of the Blue Grass is usually up to snuff.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

"Kie-Yie-Yie! Get Me 'Geta-It' Quick!"

2 Drops Make Corn "Fall" Off!

"I've joined the Never-Again Club. Never again will I use anything for corns but 'Geta-It'. Put 2 drops of 'Geta-It' on, and from that second the corn begins to shrivel.

"Oh, Don't Touch It! It's So Sore!" Use "Geta-It" and it will never be sore!

Instead of swelling up like a little white sponge. Then it loosens from your toe—and, glory hallelujah! the corn comes off as though you'd take a glove off your hand!

Yes, "Geta-It" is the corn discovery of the age. More "Geta-It" is sold by many times than any other corn remedy in existence. Try it. It takes two seconds to apply it, and it dries at once. That's all. Don't experiment—follow the experience of millions and use "Geta-It."

"Geta-It" is sold everywhere. No a bottle, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Sold in Stanford and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by The Lincoln Pharmacy and The Penny Drug Store.

Mr. W. R. Todd, who is at the head of the Stanford public schools, reached the home of his parents last week. Mrs. Todd will arrive the latter part of this week. They expect to spend most of their vacation in Columbia, Mrs. Todd before her marriage was Miss Louise McGavock, and one time taught expression in the Lindsay-Wilson.—Adair News.

Dr. T. H. Singleton and wife and Mrs. L. G. Singleton, of Bowling Green, are here with his brother, Supt. Garland Singleton, and family, and other relatives and friends in the county. They expect to remain until after the Masonic Celebration at Crab Orchard Saturday. Dr. Singleton told the I. J. that up to last Thursday night 618 car-loads of strawberries had been shipped from his home town and that several more cars would go before the season is over. Dr. Singleton likes his adopted home and is doing nicely there.

LAND, STOCK AND CROP

John M. Carter sold to Myers & Allen 56 75-pound lambs at 15c.

J. Frank Smith sold to T. W. Jones a small bunch of 175-pound hogs at 15c.

Henry D. Baughman bought of Jones Baughman, also of the West End, a 14 months old black bull calf for $200.

Powell & Depp, of the West End, last year bred nine mares. They now have nine colts. Six of them are mares and eight of them are mules.

J. T. Hackley sold to John Goggin a sow and nine pigs for $50. Mr. Hackley also sold to John Franklin a three-year-old horse for $125 and one to John B. Foster for $140.

Harry D. Frye bought at auction at Hustonville Saturday afternoon the team of mules sold by William McKinney. He paid $295 for them. The wagon they were hitched to sold for $60.50.

S. T. Powell, on the Liberty pike, South of Hustonville, who owns and stands the great saddle stallion, Almont Dare, tells the I. J. that he has had the best season with his horse in years. Almont Dare is a great breeder and is growing more popular as the years accumulate.

R. L. Berry has had trouble with sheep-killing dogs. Canines belonging to a man at Moreland got into his sheep that were on the King farm, owned by his brother, H. J. Berry, of Bourbon, and killed two of them. Mr. Berry followed the dogs and killed one of them. He moved the sheep to his home place.

Jones & Cross shipped three cars of hogs last week for which they paid 13 to 14 1-2c. They also shipped two cars of cattle, one of which they bought of William Moser at 9 1-2c. They were 1,050-pound steers and good ones. The other car was a mixed lot of cows and butcher stuff which cost them from 4 to 6c.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES

Ford Weaver, aged 18, was run over by a train at Corbin and killed. He was a son of G. F. Weaver, a Corbin merchant.

At a meeting of the Somerset Board of Education it was decided to do away with the teaching of German in the High School. French will be substituted.

The closing out of the Columbia fair grounds last week in the sale of lots marks an epoch in the history of that county that brought joy once a year to many people.

Mason, Hanger & Company, of Lexington and Richmond, successors to the Mason, Hoge Company, of Frankfort, has secured the contract for building the cantonment at Louisville.

R. N. Jarvis filed suit in the Frank Circuit Court against Gov. Stanley, asking that the court issue a mandatory injunction for the appointment of the plaintiff as Police Judge of Barbourville. According to the petition J. H. Jarvis resigned as Police Judge of Barbourville, and on May 24 the City Council elected R. N. Jarvis to fill the vacancy.

Pearl Johnson, who insisted that she was under 18 years old when she killed Floyd Dunaway, in Bell county, last October, lost her appeal from the Bell Circuit Court, and will have to go to prison for life. The Court of Appeals, in an opinion by Chief Justice Settle, held that the Circuit Court properly took jurisdiction of the case on the testimony of the girl's own mother.

Richard Gentry, T. B. Bright and Captain T. D. English, the committee appointed by Judge Coulter to appraise the land of Messrs. John and Robert Quisenberry for the railroad company, filed their appraisal this afternoon. The amount of land involved is fifty-four acres, and the price fixed for same was $41,124, or approximately $750 an acre. This is said to be about $9,000 less than the Messrs. Quisenberry asked for the land, and $8,000 more than the maximum price fixed by the railroad company.—Danville Advocate.

Senator J. C. W. Beckham, of Kentucky, has been appointed a member of a subcommittee of the Senate Military Committee in connection with possible legislation having to do with the momentous and vastly important plan for pitting the principal fight against Germany from the air.

MORELAND

The teachers and pupils of the school were sadly grieved over the death of little Evelyn Compton, the nine-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Compton. Never was there a brighter pupil and a better disposed class mate. She will be sadly missed.

"The Man from Borneo," a comedy in three acts will be given by the school improvement league at Huns & Coffey Hall, June 28th, and at McKinney opera house June 30th. This play is extremely dramatic and is very interesting and entertaining throughout. Will please all who attend. The participants urge a good crowd to attend.

The school at this place will begin July 2nd and much preparation is in progress in order to have the best school that has ever been conducted here. The same faculty which taught last year has been chosen namely: Prof. Walter Moser and Miss Mary Peavyhouse. Both have been to the Normal schools this spring to grasp new ideas which will tend to improve the school. The patrons and pupils are very fortunate indeed in securing Rev. Hockenberry, a graduate of the Conservatory of Music at Cincinnati, who will teach vocal music in our school. It is a decided fact that no other school is as fortunate as we in securing such a competent director. Miss Onetta Shewmaker, an efficient and well-dressed young lady, has a splendid class in piano music. She is a graduate of Hustonville High School and has taken music for a number of years. It is indeed lucky to have her co-operate with the school along this line. Our enthusiastic trustee, Mr. Wm. Ellis is joining graciously with the teachers who are doing all in their power to have an up-to-date school. The old fence has been removed from around the yard, two splendid outhouses erected, the yard cleaned off, floors oiled and a splendid sanitary drinking fountain installed. Many other things will be done that will add to the comfort and health of the pupils and teachers. It takes time and patience to procure such things, but keep on "digging" and perhaps some day all the schools in Kentucky will be of a desirable type. It will be remembered that the first annual commencement was held by the eighth grade last year and aims will be directed for another greater and better for this year. This year's class will not be as great in quantity but just as great in quality. Last year's class consisted of eight young people, five of whom took and passed the county diploma examination and will attend school elsewhere. We hope that other schools will have these closing exercises. On the opening morning all the patrons are especially urged to be present. It is hoped that some speeches will be delivered. The beautiful large flag will be raised and will float from the cupola on the school building. Patriotic songs will be sung.

WONDERFUL STUFF! LIFT OUT YOUR CORNS Apply A Few Drops Then Lift Corns Or Calluses Off With Fingers—No Pains

No humbug! Any corn, whether hard, soft or between the toes, will loosen right up and lift out, without a particle of pain or soreness. This drug is called freezone and is a compound of ether discovered by a Cincinnati man.

Ask at any drug store for a small bottle of freezone, which will cost but a trifle, but is sufficient to rid one's feet of every corn or callus.

Put a few drops directly upon any tender, aching corn or callus. Instantly the soreness disappears and shortly the corn or callus will loosen and can be lifted off with the fingers.

This drug freezone doesn't eat out the corns or calluses but shrivels them without even irritating the surrounding skin.

Just think! No pain at all; no soreness or smarting when applying it or afterwards. If your druggist don't have freezone have him order it for you.

Warrants on the treasury of Kentucky, known as Kentucky warrants, have been approved by Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo as security for Liberty Loan deposits.

WITH THE CHURCHES

Presbyterian Church—Mid week service Wednesday evening at 7:30 Woman's Society on Friday with Mrs. Burch at 8 o'clock.

The district missionary convention which was to have been held at McKinney today and tonight, was indefinitely postponed on account of the small-pox scare in that section.

In a letter to 200,000 clergymen of various denominations Herbert C. Hoover asks all pastors to preach on food conservation Sunday, July 1, and to endeavor to interest religious and civic bodies in a food-saving campaign.

Rev. Joseph Ballou, of Stanford, one of the best known ministers in Kentucky, celebrated last Sunday by preaching a sermon on the 50th anniversary. He has many friends in Boyle county who trust that he may have many more years of usefulness and happiness.—Danville Messenger.

Rev. M. P. Schoepfle, of Louisville, came up Saturday and on Sunday installed Rev. Berlap as pastor of the church at Gruenheim, near Coffey's school-house. Rev. Berlap was also installed as pastor of the Ottenheim church. The ceremonies attending the installation were impressive and beautiful.

Rev. H. S. Saxby and family have decided to motor through to California and will leave here about the 26th of June. They figure the trip will take about twenty days. The distance is 2,700 miles by the Lincoln Highway. Rev. Saxby has accepted a call to the Christian Church at Modesto, California.—Somerset Journal.

Evangelist W. T. Brooks will begin a protracted meeting at the Christian church in Stanford the first Sunday in July. He will be accompanied by a sweet singer, who will have charge of the choir. Mr. Brooks is a great preacher and Stanford people can rest assured that there is something good in store for them.

Rev. Howard J. Brazelton, the new pastor of the Christian church, was given a warm welcome by the other ministers of the city after he had preached an excellent sermon Sunday night. Rev. P. L. Bruce, of the Presbyterian church, was chairman of the meeting and before taking his seat made an interesting talk expressing his delight at having Rev. Brazelton among us. He then called on Dr. W. D. Welburn, of the Methodist church, whose remarks were most appropriate. Dr. M. D. Early was third and last and the pastor of the Baptist church bade Rev. Brazelton a hearty welcome and predicted that his stay in Stanford would be both pleasant and profitable to him and his family and would prove a blessing to the members of the Christian church.

EXPECTING GOOD BUSINESS Mrs. J. B. Willis, of Crab Orchard Springs, was here this week and told a reporter of the Messenger that indications were good for a large attendance at the resort this summer. Many people from other States have engaged rooms for July and August. The hotel will arrive on July 1st.

Mrs. Willis says she considers herself quite fortunate in having raised a fine garden, as this will be of inestimable help in keeping up the table. She will manage the resort herself and hopes her friends will make Crab Orchard Springs their home this summer.—Danville Messenger.

A REAL CURIOSITY The showman was exhibiting a very small skull, which he said was the head piece of the great Oliver Cromwell, according to the New York Globe.

"This skull is much too small to be the skull of a man," said one patron, indignantly. "It can only be the skull of a little boy. You're a fraud."

The showman did not lose his nerve at this, but replied with dignity: "You are right—it is not the skull of a man, but that of Cromwell when he was a small lad."

About 500 women charged police reserves in New York with hatpins and fists, crying, "Down with the draft." Several women and some of the officers were injured.

To discourage the movement of negroes to the North, several railroad lines in the South will no longer accept "prepay order" transportation for them.

DEATH OF "DOC" VINSON

The many friends of Mrs. W. I. Allin sympathize with her in the death of her father, Capt. Z. C. Vinson, who passed away about eleven o'clock Wednesday morning at the A. D. Price Memorial Hospital in this city. He was a native of Catlettsburg and was stricken with paralysis some weeks ago, and when able to be moved was brought to the hospital here by Mrs. Allin, to be near, that she might watch over him more closely. His cheery disposition and unflinching patience have endeared him to those who have nursed him, and general sorrow was felt when he began to sink on Monday. The remains were taken to residence of Mr. and Mrs. D. Praigg VanArsdall Wednesday and on Thursday morning left for his home in Catlettsburg, accompanied by Mrs. Allin, Mr. Bush W. Allin, and Mrs. VanArsdall. The funeral will be held by Rev. Pierce, his pastor, and interment will be in the Catlettsburg cemetery beside his wife, who passed away some years ago. Capt. Vinson was a prominent and popular gentleman and had been engaged in the lumber business for many years. He was 71 years old and had been a member of the Baptist church since young manhood. His death occurred on the fifty-second anniversary of his marriage. He is survived by his daughter, Mrs. W. I. Allin, of this city, and his son, Mr. John Vinson, of Catlettsburg.—Harrodsburg Herald.
